POTS ROSENTHAL

MURDER ON OTHERS

OSSINING, N. Y.—There is speculation among poison experts whether Dago Frank, one of the four gunmen who went to their death in the electric chair at dawn yesterday morning, went to death with a dose of the false drug he was accused of having taken.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning his mother and sister pleaded with him to tell the truth, and to them he is reported to have said that Guy, the Lieut. Letts, Louis and Harry Wallen, the chief informer against the dead men, and whose evidence sent them to the chair, fired the shots which killed Rosenthal.

Dago Frank said at the time of the shooting he was five miles from the scene of the crime. He also stated that as far as he knew Police Lieutenant Charles E. Becker had nothing to do with the crime.

Again, it is said that "justice has been done" were the last words of Dago Frank before he took his seat in the death chair.

All the men were in a state of near collapse as they were led into the death chamber. The executions took place just at daybreak.

CONSIDERING A STRIKE.

ROME.—The 115,000 railway employees who are being urged by leaders to go out on general strike tomorrow were doubting the wisdom of the move last night and will first try to obtain further concessions from the government. The employees are demanding an increase of salary and shorter hours.
